30 YEARS OF JAGDHOF. For 30 years, the Dolce Vita Hotel has stood for the best active and wellness holidays in Val Venosta. It's no surprise: The hosts, the Pirhofer family, are outdoor enthusiasts themselves. They love to be in nature amidst the captivating landscape of Val Venosta – either on foot or two wheels. "Always in motion" is the motto, even indoor. So much was created on the occasion of last year's big anniversary, including sunny suites and plenty of space to relax in and feel good. Unwind in the Sky Spa with panoramic relaxation rooms, work out in the yoga and gymnastics room, sweat in the Finnish infusion sauna, and relax in the infinity whirlpool – there is something for everyone. Even with these new and exciting changes, you can always count on honest, heartfelt, and humorous hospitality and the excellent cuisine. You'll see: the Jagdhof is more – so much more that words almost fail us.

SOUTH TYROL – WHERE HOLIDAY DREAMS COME TRUE

VARIED.

South Tyrol, the land of wonderful contrasts, lies in the very north of Italy. The Alpine region borders Switzerland to the west and Austria to the east and north. It is home to 512,000 people who inhabit traditional and idyllic mountain farms and the lively and culturally rich cities. Only after the end of the First World War was South Tyrol, which was part of Austria for over five centuries, awarded to its ally Italy by the victorious powers. Today, the region has three official languages: German, Italian, and Ladin and is a model for the harmonious coexistence of ethnic minorities.

DIVERSE.

Snow-covered mountain peaks and Mediterranean palm promenades. Dumplings in the Alpine hut and cappuccinos at the piazza. Living customs and contemporary trends. Historic buildings and modern architecture. In the northernmost province of Italy, Alpine meticulousness meets the relaxed Mediterranean attitude. Three languages and three cultures merge in one common living space to form a very special culture of itself. It is one that can be felt especially when in contact with the locals. Influenced by their eventful history, South Tyroleans can be described as: warm, spontaneous, and extremely authentic.

UNIQUE.

The landscape of South Tyrol is characterised by its beautiful nature: picturesque orchards, idyllic vineyards, rustic Alpine pastures, lush meadows, dense deciduous and coniferous forests, Dolomite peaks, and glaciers. Only 8% of the total area of the region is inhabited and there are still more farms than hotels. Culture is a way of life here and goes far beyond visiting museums, churches, and the over 800 castles in South Tyrol. Without a doubt, you will be impressed!
